

J.D. MCMAHAN, HEAD OF SCHOOL, INSIGHT SCHOOL OF OREGON

J.D. McMahan has been in public education for the past 33 years, 25 years as a school administrator. He has served urban and rural communities as a principal, vice-principal, counselor, teacher and coach. His specialties are curriculum, conflict resolution, staff development, student guidance and creation of alternative and innovative programs. J.D. is a life time Oregon resident who loves the outdoors. He spends most of his free time on the slopes of Mt. Hood or sailing in the Pacific Ocean off the Central Oregon Coast. J.D. has a deep enthusiasm for learning as evidenced by his attendance in a Doctoral Program at Brigham Young University; earning his Master's Degree in Counseling from Lewis and Clark College; completing a Bachelors Degree in Anthropology from Portland State University and Bachelors Degree in Education from Oregon State University. He completed his Associate of Arts Degree at Pierce Junior College. J.D. is committed to life-long learning both academic and experiential. He believes all people can learn and deserve the opportunity to experience success. ISOR represents a flexible, positive experience for the self-motivated student. A student is only limited by their own energy and commitment to achieve.